Edición Limitada. Incluye 2 hojas de calcas para representar distintos aparatos del 56th Fighter Group a escala 1:48 y 1:72.

This book covers the 56th Fighter Group during the Second World War for the period between the 18th April 1944, when the fighting element arrived at Boxted, and the 8th May 1945 when the war in Europe ended. There is also short account of post-war events leading to the group's return to the United States and de-activation.

Authors Nigel Julian and Peter Randall, respectively owners of the web sites www.56thfightergroup.co.uk and www.littlefriends.co.uk, have again joined forces to bring you the very latest in the ongoing research relating to this exceptional unit. The artwork has been selected and used to correct several profiles previously shown incorrectly in other publications, and present new images of P-47 Thunderbolts that have only very recently been identified. In total, the book includes 100 color and 336 b/w period photos, along with 40 color profiles painted by the top aviation artist, Janusz Swiatlak. Both the Razorback and Bubbletop variants of the P-47D are covered, together with the P-47M.

Este libro está dedicado al 56th Fighter Group en la Segunda Guerra Mundial, durante el periodo comprendido entre el 18 de abril de 1944, cuando la unidad llegó a Boxted, hasta el 8 de mayo de 1945, cuando terminó la guerra en Europa. También hay un breve relato de los eventos de posguerra que llevaron al grupo de regreso a los Estados Unidos y su posterior desactivación.

Los autores Nigel Julian y Peter Randall, propietarios de los sitios web www.56thfightergroup.co.uk y www.littlefriends.co.uk, han unido sus fuerzas nuevamente para brindarle una exhaustiva investigación relacionada con esta unidad excepcional. El trabajo sobre los perfiles ha sido elaborado minuciosamente para corregir perfiles previamente mostrados incorrectamente en otras publicaciones, y presenta nuevas fotografías y perfiles de los P-47 identificados recientemente.
